

12. Water Supply Project in Antanambao Manampotsy (Atsinanana Region)

Project description and objectives

The Project consists of interventions on water infrastructure development interventions to ensure adequate supply of potable water to communities of in the Antanambao Manampotsy Area, but also seeks to implement water resources management interventions to increase climate resilience of the water resources systems in the area. The project objectives are to:

- Improve the quality of life for households, schools and public facilities through increased access to drinking water
- Protect the community's water sources and improve the hygiene standard of the population dependent on the water resources
- Water supply infrastructure development
- Implement some adaptation measures to Climate Change
- Protection of the community's water sources.

Location on Map

Project status	Financial needs
The project is in the Project Definition stage (S1)	Project Cost Estimate : USD 88.0 Million
Key parties	Technical specification of the project
	The Project will consist of the following main Components: (1) Awareness Raising on the Project Issues (Stakeholder Mobilisation); (2) Integrated Water Resource Management Actions: a. Development of understanding of (specific knowledge) of the watershed and the water sources (water resources); b. Carry out water inventory studies; c. Undertake water use mapping studies (by each user sector), including zoning; d. Develop institutional, policy and legislative (regulatory) framework for the river basin; and e. Develop an Action Plan for resource protection and infrastructure development; and (3) Water Supply Infrastructure Development: a. Feasibility Study; and b. Construction of Water Supply Infrastructure.

Market size

The project will benefit about 46,700 residents in the community of Antanambao Manampotsy / Atsinanana areas

Link: <https://pp2.au-pida.org/approved-project/entry/yjk42/>